New faux woodgrain paint coatings offer the beauty of stained wood without the upkeep.

Insulation Options

With R-values up to 20.4, polyurethane and polystyrene insulation options improve energy efficiency and comfort.

making the right CHOICE

3 EASY STEPS

CHOOSE A STYLE

Since a sizable portion of what people see of your home from the street is your garage door, the style you choose should complement the rest of your home's exterior.

Clopay offers a wide selection of designs from traditional raised panel options to timeless carriage house styles and unique contemporary looks.

Use our web-based Door Imagination System at www.clopay.com to upload a photo of your home to see how various designs transform its appearance.

SELECT YOUR EXTERIOR AND INSULATION MATERIALS

Clopay garage doors come in a variety of materials, sizes and colors with a wide selection of insulation, window and hardware options. First, decide if you prefer the beauty of natural wood or the energy efficiency, durability and low maintenance of steel, composite and aluminum.

You can narrow your choices by comparing your answers to the following questions with the product overview chart on the next page.

Are you looking for a door with a traditional raised panel, a carriage house style, custom wood design or a contemporary look?

Is your garage attached to your home, adjacent to your family room or below a bedroom where noise or temperature control is important?

Do you want a door that is easy to maintain?

Do you want a door made from natural wood or one made of steel, composite or aluminum?

CONTACT A CLOPAY DEALER

Once you have decided on the style of door and options you prefer, it's time to contact a Clopay door dealer to measure, order and install your door. Ask your Clopay Dealer for WINDCODE® options and availability.

CANYON RIDGE® COLLECTION LIMITED EDITION SERIES

Beautiful and unique, Canyon Ridge® Collection Limited Edition Series carriage house doors are constructed of an energy efficient, durable steel core and finished with full composite cladding and overlays that have the appearance of authentic wood doors.

The cladding and overlay materials are molded from actual wood pieces to replicate the natural texture and intricate grain patterns of the species they emulate. These two layers are attached to a polyurethane insulated steel door for added strength and energy efficiency.

The end result is a distinctive, customized wood-look door that is often indistinguishable from the real thing.
